

Christophe BONNERY

- Christophe Bonnery is President of the French Association for Energy Economics since 2009 (www.faee.fr).
- He has also been elected in 2019 President of the International Association for Energy Economics (www.iaee.org).
- He is Director, Strategic Partnerships in Paris School of Economics (www.parisschoolofeconomics.eu)
- Previously is was Vice President, Economics & Prospective, Enedis, the French power distribution company.
- He created the French Circle of Energy Economists, to promote energy economics to energy policy makers.
- He created the Marcel Boiteux Award, which recognizes the best book on energy economics.
- He was also Vice President, Energy Policy for the AREVA Group. His role consisted in understanding current energy policies and promoting acceptable evolutions for all stakeholders.
- He also led for a program aiming to define potential synergies between nuclear and oil industries for heavy oil production.
- Mr. Bonnery received his M.Sc in General Engineering from Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Arts et Métiers, Paris, France, and MBA in Petroleum Economics and Management from the Center for Economics and Management, IFP School, Paris, France.
- His former affiliations include: Head of the Economics Department, NUSYS consulting company, Paris, France; Project-consultant, Shell, Paris, France; Research Assistant, Economic and Industrial Research Division, University of Petroleum and Minerals, Dhahran, Saudi Arabia.
- Christophe Bonnery has been awarded the Knighthood of the National Order of Merit.